TREDWELLS RARE COLLECTION

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

2011	Le Soula Blanc, Gérard Gauby, Vin de Pays des Cêtes Catalanes, France Gérard Gauby took over the chalky soils of the family estate back in 1985. Today he drives the business into the future by creating wines of great balance and concentration.	£69
2016	Ochota Barrels Slint Chardonnay, Adelaide Hills, South Australia Team Ochota is made up of Amber and Tarras Ochota. They travelled the world in a VW campervan surfing and tasting wine before setting up shop in Adelaide Hills to make this amazingly precise Chardonnay.	£70
2014	Sato Pinot Noir, Yoshi Sato, Central Otago, New Zealand Protected by the Remarkables mountain range, Yoshi Sato's beautifully elegant Pinot Noir is a definite shift in style for Central Otago. A great example of the very unique wines New Zealand is able to produce.	£90
2010	Altos de Lanzaga, Telmo Rodriguez, Rioja, Spain Telmo is a modern day Spanish pioneer whose sole focus is to reflect a sense of place in his wines using only Spanish varieties, good growers and good viticulture.	£120
2013	Gevrey-Chambertin, Dujac Fils et Pere, Burgundy, France Smoky in youth, the 2013s from Dujac's negotiant are evolving into something more refined and subtle. Beautifully vibrant red fruits are fused with warm earth and autumnal spice. Stunning Pinot Noir. Fils et Pere is a young operation run by Jeremy Seysses with help from his Dad Jacques. Set up in 2000 they have hit the ground running.	£120
2012	Kalleske Shiraz, Johann Georg, Barossa Valley, South Australia Shiraz and the Barossa Valley are synonymous. The fruit comes from original Kalleske vines planted in 1875 - twisty gnarly looking things that hardly bare fruit. What fruit they do bare is super concentrated creating chewy textured reds bursting with berry, spice and pepper.	£130
1996	Cht La Lagune, Haut-Medoc, Bordeaux, France Chateau La Lagune was built in 1715. Its vineyards were planted nearly ten years later in 1724. The property is now owned by Champagne house Ayala (sister company of Bollinger) who modernised the operation firmly cementing its place as producing some of the finest wine on the planet. Fantastically refined with crushed black fruits, charred-spice and a long finish.	£135
2010	Rubicon, Inglenook, Napa Valley, California, USA In 1975 profits from the Godfather films helped Director Francis Ford Coppola purchase the Inglenook estate in the Napa Valley. Born in 1978 the Rubicon is the estate's flagship wine made from the very best fruit. Beautifully integrated blackberry, floral and herbaceous notes. Fine tannins and a long finish.	£250
